Rolando Guy

Lyric Tenor

Argentine-Italian tenor based in Berlin

BIOGRAPHY

Argentine-Italian lyric tenor Rolando Guy was born in Buenos Aires, where he studied at the National Conservatory and continued his training privately with distinguished teachers connected to Teatro Colón. Based in Berlin since 2019, he has continued to refine his technique and expand his repertoire in Germany. He further developed his operatic repertoire with Dante Ranieri, Susana Cardonnet, Rozita Zozoulia and Marcelo Ayub. In 2017, he participated in the Javier Camarena masterclass in Buenos Aires.

ARTISTIC PROFILE

- Argentine-Italian tenor based in Berlin
- Lyric Tenor · Opera · Concert · Recital
- A selected overview of repertoire for stage, recital, and concert performance.

SELECTED REPERTOIRE

Opera roles

- Nemorino — L'elisir d'amore (G. Donizetti)
- Rodolfo — La Bohème (Giacomo Puccini)
- Tamino — Die Zauberflöte (W. A. Mozart)

Concert & gala arias

- Dies Bildnis ist bezaubernd schön — W. A. Mozart
- È la solita storia del pastore - L'Arlesiana — Cilea

PROGRAMS & FORMATS

- Opera Gala: Arias & Duets — A versatile concert program built around celebrated tenor arias and selected ensemble scenes. Available as a solo recital with piano or in collaboration with soprano and baritone, this format combines dramatic contrast, lyrical expression, and audience-friendly repertoire from the operatic tradition.
- Italian Song, Opera & Canzone — A lyrical journey through the Italian vocal tradition, from salon song and canzone to beloved operatic scenes. This program brings together elegance, warmth, and dramatic intensity, offering audiences an intimate yet expressive encounter with Italian repertoire.

CONTACT & BOOKING

Email: rolandoguy@gmail.com

Website: https://www.rolandoguy.com/

For bookings and artistic enquiries, please write directly by email.