Rolando Guy

Argentine-Italian Lyric Tenor based in Berlin

BIOGRAPHY

Argentine-Italian lyric tenor Rolando Guy was born in Buenos Aires, where he studied at the National Conservatory and continued his training privately with distinguished teachers connected to Teatro Colón. Based in Berlin since 2019, he has continued to refine his technique and expand his repertoire in Germany. His recent engagements include the role of Zweiter Fremder in Der Vetter aus Dingsda at Kammeroper Frankfurt in 2025 and Tamino in a children's production of Die Zauberflöte with Opernwerkstatt am Rhein in 2023. He has also appeared as tenor soloist at the Apollosaal of the Staatsoper Unter den Linden in Berlin, performed with the ensemble Die Goldvögel in Berlin and Copenhagen, and appeared as soloist with the Diplomatic Choir of Berlin at the Berliner Dom, the German Federal Foreign Office and Notre-Dame in Strasbourg.

SELECTED REPERTOIRE

Opera roles

- Ferrando - Cosi fan tutte (W. A. Mozart)
-
- Tamino – Die Zauberflöte (W. A. Mozart)

Concert & gala arias

- Dies Bildnis ist bezaubernd schön – W. A. Mozart
- È la solita storia del pastore - L'Arlesiana – Cilea

PROGRAMS & FORMATS

- Opera Gala: Arias & Duets – A versatile concert program built around celebrated tenor arias and selected ensemble scenes. Available as a solo recital with piano or in collaboration with soprano and baritone, this format combines dramatic contrast, lyrical expression, and audience-friendly repertoire from the operatic tradition.
- Italian Song, Opera & Canzone – A lyrical journey through the Italian vocal tradition, from salon song and canzone to beloved operatic scenes. This program brings together elegance, warmth, and dramatic intensity, offering audiences an intimate yet expressive encounter with Italian repertoire.

CONTACT & BOOKING

EMAIL

rolandoguy@gmail.com

WEBSITE

https://rolandoguy.com

irectly by email.

https://rolandoguy.com